

Description

The system under test provides evidence that the system can be configured to trigger syndromic surveillance messages within 12 hours as required by the HL7 Version 2.5.1 Implementation Guide: Syndromic Surveillance, Release 1 - US Realm (Jul 2019). The Tester manually reviews the test evidence provided to evaluate whether the HIT Module has the capability to conform to this IG-specified business requirement.

Comments

null

Pre-condition

null

Post-Condition

null

Test Objectives

This Manual Test Case requires the Tester to manually evaluate the capability of the HIT Module to submit syndromic surveillance messages within 12 hours of the message trigger event as per the HL7 Version 2.5.1 Implementation Guide: Syndromic Surveillance, Release 1 - US Realm (Jul 2019) conformance requirements.

Evaluation Criteria

null

Notes

null